CONTRACTED INDEPENDENT SHORE EXCURSION OPERATOR'S DIVING POLICY

Due to the nature and level of physical exertion involved in diving excursions, these excursions may not be appropriate for individuals with certain medical conditions such as asthma, heart conditions, high blood pressure or serious diabetes. Contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators require that all guests be able to participate safely in the shore excursion. If you have any medical condition that may affect your ability to participate safely in the diving excursion, please contact the Shore Excursion Manager prior to booking your excursion. This applies to scuba diving, snuba, power snorkel, underwater scooter and sea trek excursions.

WEATHER

Sometimes the weather does not realize that our guests are on vacation and subsequently forgets to cooperate. It should be noted that excursions operate rain or shine. At times for safety reasons, contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators will cancel particular excursions due to inclement weather conditions. In this instance, refunds will be made for guests holding tickets on a cancelled excursion and all efforts will be made to accommodate guests on an alternative excursion.

RESPONSIBILITY

Carnival is not responsible for any losses, injuries, or claims whatsoever arising from, connected with, or related to any activities engaged in by guests while off Carnival's vessels or tenders in any port of call. This includes shore excursions, whether the tickets for the excursions are sold on board the vessel or ashore by third parties. Guests engage in all such activities off the vessel at their own risk. All shore excursions, including any related transportation, are operated by independent contractors and Carnival neither supervises nor controls their actions, nor makes any representation either express or implied as to their suitability. Carnival sells tickets for all excursions as a convenience to guests only. Contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators, transportation providers, and their employees are neither agents nor employees of Carnival, notwithstanding their use of any signage or clothing which may contain the name "Carnival" or other related trade names or logos. It is understood and agreed that Carnival assumes no responsibility for, nor guarantees performance of and in no event shall be liable for, any loss, damage, injury, or death in connection with said excursions or transportation. Please refer to your ticket contract for further information regarding your rights and obligations as well as those of Carnival.

Enjoy the lush surroundings of a 2000 acre working plantation as you learn the history of the lands once owned by the largest planter in Jamaica- John Tharpe. Take a walk across a 1700 Spanish bridge to the ruins where the water wheel and kiln still stands today. Visit the pottery house to see the work of the potter in residence and the great house that was built in 1755. Finally, stop at the Trading House, the only store of its kind in the Caribbean where you can purchase great art, carvings, books and souvenirs made in Jamaica. After completing your historic visit you will now be taken to the beautiful Shoppes at Rosehall to experience the best duty free shopping on island before returning to the ship. Note: Travel time from the pier to Good Hope Estate is approximately one hour. Light cool clothing, comfortable walking shoes, a hat and sunscreen are recommended.  | 9:30 AM              |
| $59.99Adult$34.99Child | ROSE HALL GREAT HOUSE &amp; SHOPPINGTour Duration: 3 Hours  Enjoy a scenic drive to Rose Hall Great House, the former home of the "White Witch". Born in France in the 1700s, Annee Palmer was a petite woman who moved to the beautiful island of Jamaica to be the wife of a powerful man who owned Rose Hall and thousands of acres of sugar plantation. It is said that Annee Palmer had three husbands during her reign as mistress of the Rose Hall Plantation and each of them died a sudden and violent death. The slaves who worked on the plantation believed Annie had done away with each husband. Although she maintained her innocence, she gained a reputation for extreme cruelty -- hence the White Witch of Rose Hall nickname. You will learn more about the "White Witch of Rose Hall" during your tour and get to taste the exotic "Witches Brew". Also, pause for a while before returning to the cruise pier, at the Shoppes at Rose Hall where duty-free items including watches, crystal, Italian handbags, Indian silks, Jamaican rum, liquors and liqueurs are sold.  | 9:30 AM              |

Enjoy a scenic bus ride in air conditioned comfort to the secluded Chukka Jungle Outpost where your adventure begins. Receive a safety briefing from one of your guides and make your way to the river bank where your kayak awaits you. Ride the currents of the two-mile course down the Great River as you forge your way through a few rapids to where the second stage of your adventure begins. Disembark on a bamboo-lined riverbank to begin a short hike to a hidden platform which is your launching pad to the first of three traverses. Enjoy the excitement of flying over the forest canopy and over the same river whose remaining rapids you still must conquer; an intricate system of cables will connect you between platforms and lead you back to the riverbank where you'll rejoin your kayak. Continue the excitement as you paddle your way to a swing rope where you test your Tarzan skills, or simply take a swim in the refreshing, calm Jamaican river before tackling the final rapids. Head back to the starting point in a jungle truck where you can purchase jerk chicken or jerk pork to feed the appetite you just worked up, or visit the gift shop and refresh yourself at the bar before heading back to your ship. | $49.99Adult$39.99Child | PEDRO ST. JAMES, HELL &amp; BEACH ESCAPETour Duration: 4.5 Hours    Our tour begins in our Capital, George Town. George Town is the center of business & commerce & it is where many of our historic buildings are located. The journey continues into the country side of Cayman. We will see many houses in Spotts & the vegetation of Savannah. Then we will be moving on to Pedro St. James Castle, the birthplace of our first constitution. From there, we will go to Seven Mile beach to the district of West Bay where we will see many of our historic Caymanian homes such as the Old Homestead. Next we will visit the Town of Hell. Hell is where you can meet the Devil himself & send your friends & family cards postmarked from Hell. We will be ending at the world famous Seven Mile Beach & Calico Jack's Bar & Grill. You will have approximately an hour to get a snack, rent some water sports toys or just relax on our white sand beach overlooking the Caribbean Sea. Note: Beach chairs are available for rent. Bring your sunscreen & towel.  | 8:30 AM |

SCUBA DIVING TOURS

|---|---|-------------------------|
| $119.99Per Person | BEGINNER'S SCUBA DIVINGTour Duration: 3 Hours  This is the perfect opportunity to try scuba diving for the first time. After a short transfer to the training facility, you will have an orientation followed by a practice session in a private pool to familiarize yourself with the scuba equipment in shallow water. Afterwards, join your Instructor on a shallow dive exploring the pristine marine park. Marvel at the wonders of the underwater world on your first scuba experience. Note: Minimum age is 12 years. All equipment is provided. Medical release required. This is not a certification course and therefore a universally recognized C-Card will not be issued to guests. Please refer to the Tour Operators' Diving Policy.   | 8:00 AM12:00 PM |
| $69.99Per Person   | CERTIFIED SHORE DIVETour Duration: 2 Hours   Explore the beautiful Casuarina Point Reef right from shore. This is a perfect dive for those who haven't dived in a while, for the newly certified, and for Jr. Open Water divers. You will be escorted to a bus for a short ride to the dive shop. After a safety briefing, you'll don your gear and your PADI Dive Instructor will guide you around the reef. You will see a myriad of sponges, soft corals and sea fans and you may encounter some sergeant majors, angelfish, grouper, and parrot fish. If lucky, a turtle or nurse shark may swim by. Because this is a shallow reef, approximately 50 feet, you can have an extended bottom time of 50 minutes. After the dive, you will have the option to go back to Georgetown for shopping or lounge around by the pool or shore side. NOTE: Minimum age is 12 years. Guests must present a valid C-Card in order to participate and must have logged a dive within the last 5 years. Equipment included. Please refer to the Tour Operators' Diving Policy. | 8:00 AM                 |
| $99.99Per Person   | CERTIFIED TWO TANK DIVETour Duration: 4 Hours    With its translucent waters and magnificent marine life, Grand Cayman is a paradise for divers! Your first dive at Cayman's famous "West Wall" (average depth of 70 feet) features crevices and overhangs teeming with hard corals, colorful sponges and beautiful gorgon. The second dive site will be one of Grand Cayman's beautiful coral reefs or shipwrecks where you'll dive among a diverse collection of fish and other marine life. NOTE: Minimum age is 12 years. Guests must present a valid C-Card in order to participate and must have logged a dive within the last two years. Equipment included. Please refer to the Tour Operators' Diving Policy.  | 8:00 AM                 |

MAINLAND TOURS

Our Mainland Tours take place on Mexico's mainland, located about 45 minutes by ferry boat from the island of Cozumel. All guests on the mainland tours are required to board the yellow and blue ferry boat located at the end of the pier. Each of the tour operators will be waiting at the end of the pier with their clearly marked tour signs indicating where to check in prior to boarding the mainland ferry boat. The ferry ride may be rough depending on weather conditions, preventative sea sickness medication is recommended prior to boarding the ferry.

VERY IMPORTANT - All guests holding mainland tour tickets need to meet in the designated lounge prior to the tour departure as stated on your tour ticket.
