

CRUISE VESSEL SECURITY AND SAFETY ACT

Viking Cruises is committed to the safety and security of its guests and crew. As required by the Cruise Vessel Security and Safety Act of 2010, this guide provides information on emergency contacts and proper procedures for our guests. In the event of a medical emergency, missing person or criminal activity, you should immediately dial 999 or contact:

- Security Officer (Deck 1; Phone 9710)
- Guest Services Desk (Deck 1; Phone 9710)
- Medical Center (Deck A; Phone 2010 Nurse)

All of which are available 24 hours a day, to report any medical emergency, missing person or criminal activity. Our ship's Security Officer is responsible for responding to alleged crimes and missing persons and should be contacted immediately for any such event.

Any missing persons and criminal activity should be reported immediately so that appropriate personnel can take prompt action and secure necessary information. Viking Cruises has zero tolerance for crime on board its vessels. On international voyages that embark or disembark in the United States we are required by federal law to report on board felonies and missing U.S. nationals to federal agencies. For a missing U.S. national and all serious felonies (homicide, suspicious death, kidnapping, assault with serious bodily injury, sexual assaults as defined by federal laws, firing or tampering with the vessel, or theft of money or property in excess of $10,000) the incident must be reported to the F.B.I. by telephone as soon as possible, to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security electronically, and to the U.S. Coast Guard in writing. These requirements apply to incidents that occur on board in U.S. territorial waters, or on the high seas or in foreign waters if the assailant or victim is a U.S. national.

The F.B.I. can assert criminal jurisdiction in all of these circumstances. Each of the nations visited, as well as the vessel's nation of registry, may also assert jurisdiction and/or impose additional reporting requirements. Viking Cruises reserves the right to report any/all criminal allegations to any national, state or local law enforcement agency in addition to those mentioned. For missing persons or felonies arising at any time during the voyage you may independently contact the F.B.I. or U.S. Coast Guard. For incidents within state or foreign waters or ports you may, in addition, contact local law enforcement authorities.

We ask that you please timely report any incident to vessel management. Failure to do so may prevent a thorough collection of information and evidence.
