General Information

The Shore Excursion Team is available throughout the cruise at the Shore Excursions Desk (The Atrium, Deck 1) for inquiries about excursions. Daily opening hours are published on the back page.

Please be advised that all included shore excursions must be reserved in advance so that we may secure your space.

Due to customs and port regulations, the boutiques remain closed whenever Viking Star is in port. Opening hours are published here on the back page.

Some dining venues require reservations. Opening hours and reservation instructions are published on the back page.

Dress Codes

Daytime attire is casual. Swimsuits, brief shorts, cover-ups and exercise attire should be reserved for the pool area and Sports Deck.

Evening attire is elegant casual. Suggested attire for ladies includes a dress, sweater or blouse with a skirt or slacks. For gentlemen, trousers and a collared shirt are required in all dining venues after 6:00 PM. Ties and jackets are optional, and jeans are not allowed.

World of Viking

To watch the latest Viking Today program or listen to recordings of port talks and enrichment lectures, please select the Entertainment box on your stateroom TV, then the "World of Viking" option. Port talks and lectures are uploaded for viewing on the day following their live presentation in the Star Theater and will remain available for the remainder of the cruise.

Internet Access

The Viking Cruises wireless network requires a password authentication. To get started, select "Viking Cruises" on your device.

When the automatic page opens, enter your stateroom number followed by your last name; then press "Next." You should now be connected to your complimentary Wi-Fi service.

#MyVikingStory

As you enjoy your travels, we invite you to share your photos and the stories behind them on myvikingstory.com. These might include special moments from your cruise such as your favorite view, meal, drink, thinking spot—even staff member. Also, while you're sharing your photos and stories with fellow Instagram, Facebook and Twitter friends, please remember to add #MyVikingStory.

Shore Excursions Booking Deadline

The final deadline to book, change or cancel shore excursions for the ports of San Juan, Puerto Rico (Saturday, October 29) and Road Town, Tortola, British Virgin Islands (Sunday, October 30) is 6:00 PM this evening at the Shore Excursions Desk (The Atrium, Deck 1). Please note that some shore excursions have limited participation, and may sell out before the booking deadline. As well, a minimum participation is required to operate any Viking shore excursion. If this minimum number is not reached, the shore excursion may be cancelled.

Featured Enrichment Lecturers

GUEST LECTURER

GREGORY BOWDEN studied modern history at the University of Oxford, where he developed the research techniques to study pirates, a life-long interest, in more detail. Also a graduate of the WSET London Wine and Spirit School, he is a lecturer for the Wine and Spirit Education Trust and the official historian of Morgan sports cars.

GUEST LECTURER

ROGER LUCKENBACH, PhD, is a scientist, educator, filmmaker and an accomplished underwater photographer and videographer. Over the course of his career, he has taught more than 40 courses ranging from cultural anthropology to wildlife ecology and marine biology, helped produce several documentaries and worked for the Smithsonian and the Monterey Bay Aquarium.

Exclusively from Oslo's Munch Museum

MUNCH MOMENTS

Experience Viking's exclusive "Munch Moments," a little piece of culture to accompany your pre-dinner cocktail. Marvel at this master Expressionist's breathtaking work on our Atrium screen—including his famous painting The Scream and lesser known works such as Moonlight Over the Sea.

A different masterpiece profiled every afternoon in The Living Room.

Protect Yourself from the Sun!

The beautiful Caribbean sun can be quite strong and intense! To avoid a bad sunburn, be sure to limit your exposure to the sun and always use a strong sunscreen or sunblock, particularly if sun sensitive. Even on a cloudy day, you may end up with a sunburn. Also, be sure to wear a hat or cap when exploring our many interesting ports of call, and don't forget your sunglasses. Each day, bottled water will always be available for you at the ship's gangway as you disembark the ship.

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

Puerto Rico and its alluring capital of San Juan encompass the finest qualities of the Caribbean: white-sand beaches, lush rainforests and inspiring Spanish colonial ambiance. Juan Ponce de León landed here in 1508 and it soon became a stopover for explorers from the Old World. Today, San Juan is a picturesque Caribbean capital rich in colorful architecture, lively music and delicious and creative cuisine. The vibrant city is the perfect gateway to the lush El Yunque Rainforest, the pride of the island and the only tropical rainforest in the US National Park system. Visitors raise a glass to it all at Casa Bacardi, maker of one of the Caribbean's most popular rums.

TORTOLA, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Spread across miles of gleaming azure waters, the British Virgin Islands cap the summits and peaks of a chain of dormant underwater volcanoes. Their lush beauty is unmatched, and Tortola, the largest of the archipelago, is among the most stunning. Sailors have been skirting these shores for centuries. The famed pirates Blackbeard and Captain Kidd even took up residence here. With the arrival of colonists from England and, later, defeated loyalists from the thirteen colonies of the newly founded United States, the island's sugar industry boomed. Today, the capital of Road Town rests on a picturesque horseshoe-shaped harbor where yachts mingle with simple fishing boats and rainforest-clad hills rise up to a blue sky.

ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA

Blanketed with tropical forests that lead to sheer cliffs overlooking azure waters, Antigua has a rich past as a naval outpost of the Royal Crown. It is the largest of the Leeward Islands and one of the most British in the Caribbean. Perhaps its most famous resident hailing from England was Admiral Horatio Nelson, sent here to command the fleet in 1784. Today, Antigua and neighboring Barbuda, along with several smaller islands, comprise an independent country. Its capital, St. John's, has been an administrative center since 1632, and the baroque twin bell towers of the cathedral attest to a long British influence. The nation boasts a powder-sand beach for every day of the year.

CASTRIES, ST. LUCIA

Rich in unspoiled and dramatic scenery, St. Lucia boasts some of the Caribbean's most idyllic beaches, many near the capital of Castries. This paradise is so seductive that the British and French fought over it for 150 years. The British finally triumphed in 1814. Today St. Lucia is a sovereign nation, yet still part of the Commonwealth of England. The island has a rich artistic heritage: the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Castries is adorned with lush murals painted by a local artist and batik artisans keep a cherished tradition alive in their shops. On the island's west coast, the landmark Gros and Petit Pitons, two breathtaking rocky pylon peaks, soar over pristine beaches.

BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOS

The easternmost of the Caribbean islands, Barbados is rich in British history and spectacular sandy beaches. Home to the Commonwealth's third oldest parliament, Barbados is often called "Little England" for its lasting British influence. Bajans, as islanders are known, exude a hearty love of their small island country and delight in sharing its unique culture. Cricket matches and afternoon tea are as common here as surfing and sunning on the beach with family and friends. And a bottle of the island's native Mount Gay Rum, and perhaps a delicious conkie, a pumpkin-coconut cake steamed in banana leaves, are never far out of reach. The island's capital, Bridgetown, boasts a wealth of historic buildings and sites.

NORWAY:
COLORS &
TEXTURES
Ode to nature

A lastair Miller’s inspiring photography featured on our Atrium screen captures both Norwegian purity and Viking resourcefulness up close. From the watertight grain of oak to the density of lamb’s wool, the Vikings harnessed the finest details of Norway’s natural world with grace and molded form to function with elegance. They knew, far ahead of their time, that the true beauty of nature stands out in its details. We hope you enjoy this compilation of images in our book and note card series.

POINTE-À-PITRE, GUADELOUPE

Equal parts soaring natural beauty and vibrant tropical culture, the French territory of Guadeloupe is one of the Caribbean's most intriguing destinations. Often called the "Butterfly Island," it is actually two islands linked by bridges. The capital, Pointe-à-Pitre, is on Grand-Terre, the flat eastern island. Here, bright colors and delicious flavors, from pungent spices to tropical fruits and handmade crafts, bring village markets to life. Across Alliance Bridge, on the western island of Basse-Terre, tropical jungles crawl up steep mountain slopes awash in towering waterfalls and teeming with wildlife. This is Guadeloupe National Park, one of France's seven nationally protected wilderness areas. Exploring this pristine forest is one of the Caribbean's most invigorating adventures.

BASSETERRE, ST. KITTS AND NEVIS

Once a sugar-producing powerhouse, St. Kitts is lush with unspoiled vistas and old sugarcane fields. Together, St. Kitts and its neighboring island of Nevis comprise the smallest independent country in the Americas. Today, mangoes dominate the harvests instead of sugar. Home to vervet monkeys, banana trees and coconut palms, St. Kitts' coastal perimeter road leads to white-sand beaches and calm bays. The compact capital and main port, Basseterre, is one of the oldest towns in the eastern Caribbean, dotted with Victorian and Georgian architecture. The grassy patch of Independence Square, in the heart of the town, is where locals gather to exchange gossip in the shade of stately 18th-century buildings and Basseterre's English-style cathedral.

Also, while you’re sharing your photos and stories with fellow Instagram, Facebook and Twitter friends, please remember to add #MyVikingStory.

Booking Deadline

Please note that the final deadline to book, change or cancel shore excursions for the port of Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands, is 6:00 PM this evening at the Shore Excursions Desk (The Atrium, Deck 1). Kindly note that some shore excursions have limited participation, and may sell out before the booking deadline. As well, a minimum participation is required to operate any Viking shore excursion. If this minimum is not reached, the shore excursion may be cancelled.

White Smoke

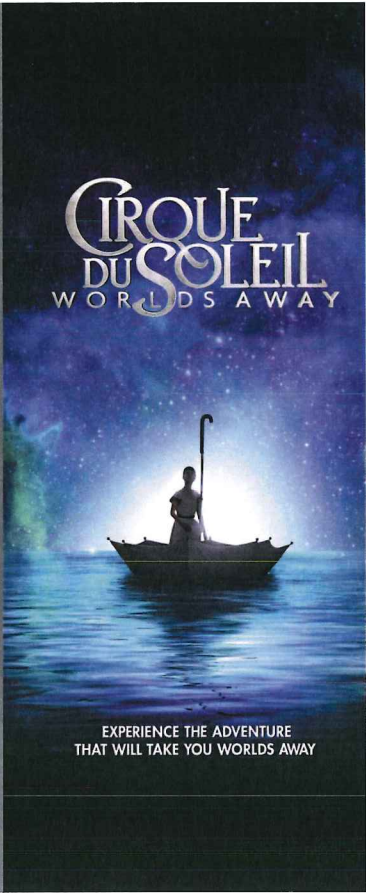

The white smoke you may see emanating from the ship’s funnel is part of our ongoing efforts to protect the environment. To reduce sulfur in the ship’s exhaust, Viking Cruises has invested in equipment which effectively “washes” the gases and particulates with a mixture of water and sodium hydroxide. A warm, damp exhaust with very low sulfur content is then discharged from the funnel. When this clean exhaust comes into contact with colder air, the water vapor condenses and forms a steam cloud over the funnel, much in the way you see your breath on a cold day. You can also see this process at work in industrial chimneys, particularly on cold mornings. It’s just one way Viking Cruises is working to be an eco-friendly cruise line.

PHILIPSBURG, ST. MAARTEN

St. Martin is a fascinating mix of France and Holland, lush with Caribbean beauty all its own. The island has been shared by the two nations since 1648. The early economy relied on cotton, tobacco, salt and sugar. A large salt pond remains, once harvested by the Dutch East India Company for trade. Today, the Dutch side of the island, anchored by its capital, Philipsburg, is dotted with resorts and casinos; while the French capital, Marigot, exudes the romance of a quaint village. The renowned Rotary Lookout Point offers stunning international views of the vast Simpson Bay Lagoon and surrounding islands. And the famous Orient Beach is a stunning 1.5-mile swath of white sand.

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, ST. THOMAS

St. Thomas, purchased by the US from Denmark in 1917, is a rich blend of colorful architecture, stunning beaches and intriguing history. Impressionist painter Camille Pissarro was born here in 1830 and his childhood stone house is nestled on Charlotte Amalie's Main Street among the silver and gold shops. In Pissarro's day, a significant Jewish community flourished here. The 1833 St. Thomas Synagogue, perched on Synagogue Hill, is the second oldest on US soil. Nearby, Danish bankers and merchants who helped build St. Thomas kept multi-hued houses on Government Hill, some of them now gloriously restored. Beyond Charlotte Amalie, the near-perfect Magens Bay is lined with coconut palms and kissed by azure waters.

Things to Remember

Guests are reminded to carry their stateroom keycard and a government issued photo ID when proceeding ashore today.

#MyVikingStory

As you enjoy your travels, we invite you to share your photos and the stories behind them on myvikingstory.com. These might include special moments from your cruise such as your favorite view, meal, drink, thinking spot—even staff member. Also, while you’re sharing your photos and stories with fellow Instagram, Facebook and Twitter friends, please remember to add #MyVikingStory.

Accounts

Guest accounts can be accessed via your stateroom television by navigating to the Onboard Account option in the “My Cruise” box. Please check this information and direct any inquiries to the Explorers’ Desk on Deck 1 by 10:00 PM this evening.

Disembarkation Tomorrow...

A disembarkation letter has been delivered to your stateroom with guidelines.

Color-coded luggage tags will be provided to assist with identification in the terminal building for customs and immigration. Please clearly fill out the tags, remove any old tags and attach the new ones.

Passports, tickets, medications, breakables and valuables should be kept as part of your hand luggage. Please remember not to pack any items you will need on debarkation morning (i.e., clothing, medicine, and passport).

Luggage: Guests should place their checked luggage outside their stateroom by 10:00 PM this evening (November 6th) for collection.

Accounting: Please be informed, if you have a refundable balance on your account, we would like to invite you down to the Explorers’ Desk on the final evening of your cruise to collect your refund. If this is not convenient, we will arrange to have the refund amount applied to your credit card on file. Please note this transaction may take up to fourteen (14) days to process and appear on your credit card statement.

If you arranged at the start of the cruise to settle your account in cash, we kindly ask that you settle your account no later than the final evening of the cruise.

If you registered a credit card at the start of the cruise on your account, you do not need to do anything further.

Shore Excursions

The following included shore excursions meet ashore --- you will be directed to your transportation

TOUR CODE:

- You may expect a short walk to the excursion transportation which will be used today (usually open-air “safari”-style buses are used in St. Thomas). On the pier side, please look for Shore Excursions Staff wearing red Viking polos, who will direct you to your transportation.
- We kindly ask that you do not come ashore early for any of the above shore excursions, as your transportation and guide may not yet be available or ready. As well, we are unable to guarantee that additional space will be available for an earlier or later departures of the same shore excursion. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.
- Cross referencing the tour codes indicated above with the tour code printed on your St. Thomas shore excursion ticket(s), please meet for your shore excursion either onboard (in the Star Theater) or ashore, based on the information indicated above.
- If booked on any excursion where swimming or any other water-related activity is included, a reminder that beach towels will be found in all staterooms and suites. Beach towels will not be available at the Gangway. Also, don’t forget your sunscreen and sunglasses, and we suggest that you bring along a hat or cap. Bottled water will always be available at the Gangway, as you disembark the ship.
- Excursion timings and durations are approximate, and sometimes subject to change. Planned excursion itineraries are also subject to change when due to local conditions and circumstances beyond our control.

Disembarkation Checklist

Onboard Account

- Please note the credit card on your account will be charged automatically on the morning of Monday, November 7. Cash accounts and inquiries should be settled the night before you disembark.

Your Stateroom

- Check that all drawers and cabinets are empty. Also, please leave the door to your safe open.

Luggage

- Use the color-coded luggage tags we have provided to help you locate your luggage in the terminal. If you did not do this, you are responsible for disembarking with your luggage.
- Clearly fill out the information on these tags.
- Attach the tags to your luggage and remove any old tags.
- Leave the tagged luggage outside your stateroom by 10:00 PM, Sunday, November 6 for transfer to the terminal.
- Keep passports, tickets, medications, breakables and valuables with the belongings you will hand carry to the terminal.
- Remember not to pack any items, such as clothing, you will need tomorrow morning.

Please note: Any unidentified luggage which has not cleared Customs and Immigration in the terminal will not be transferred to your continuing transportation.

Disembarkation Procedures

- You will have received a personal letter explaining disembarkation procedures. Also you will receive a colored luggage tag, depending on your continued travel arrangements.
- Announcements will be made advising you when your transportation and luggage will be ready.
- Please vacate your stateroom by 8:00 AM, so we have time to prepare it for our next guests.
- If you have made your own travel arrangements, please proceed directly to the gangway at the time designated in your letter. If you go earlier, your luggage and transportation may not be ready.
- Keeping the gangway area clear until you are ready to depart will help make for a speedy and efficient disembarkation.
- You will be asked to show your stateroom key card to security at the gangway as you disembark.

Please note: Before anyone can go ashore, the ship must obtain clearance from the local authorities. Thank you for your patience.

Customs and Immigration

- To adhere to customs requirements, please take a moment to familiarize yourself with the local customs and immigration requirements.

Please ensure you have your passport with the completed mandatory customs declaration in-hand and ready for the US CBP officer. Please be reminded that the customs declaration form is one per family.

A Farewell from Your Senior Officers

Sujith Mohan
